

RAVA's SAMPAT Professional Center

The Currituck Chamber and Outer Banks Chamber co-hosted a ribbon cutting/Business After Hours to celebrate the grand opening of RAVA's SAMPAT Professional Center Office/Retail/Executive Suites Complex in Currituck County. Pictured in the center cutting the ribbon are owners Raju and Vijayasree Uppalapati. On their left is Currituck Chamber President Jeanette Rhoads and on the right is Outer Banks Chamber President and CEO John Bone. Many people from both Currituck and Dare Counties attended the event. We would like to thank Commissioners Paul O'Neal, Paul Martin and Owen Etheridge for attending the event as well as Currituck Chamber Board members Tom Jones, Amy Hill, Wanda Beasley, Eddie Lynch and Chairman-Elect David Palmer. Chamber Ambassadors attending the event were Gena Martin, Nationwide/Bembridge Insurance; Allyson Sproul, Wachovia Mortgage; Rick Spore, Century 21 Lighthouse Realty and Courtney Gallop, Gallop Funeral Services. With seven individual buildings, the SAMPAT Professional Center located in Powells Point will provide over 32,000 square feet of office space in a variety of one and two story office suite arrangements. Phase 1 is complete and ready for immediate occupancy. All units are for Sale or Lease. Please stop by their on-site office or call 252-491-9999 for more information or email info@theravagroup.com.
